

TEACH-VIP is a comprehensive injury prevention and control curriculum developed by the WHO and a network of global injury prevention experts

This important curriculum is now available in an e-based format.

Introduction to TEACH-VIP E-Learning

~WEBINAR~

Wednesday March 17 9:30am (ET)

- The history of the TEACH VIP curriculum and what it covers
- The new e-based format, how to access it, and how it works
- Creative applications for the new format—who can use it

Presented by:

David Richard Meddings MD, MHSc, FRCP(C) Medical Officer, Department of Violence and Injury Prevention and Disability, World Health Organization

Carmen Aldinger, PhD, MPH, Associate Center Director, Global Programs, Health and Human Development Division, Education Development Center, Inc.

Click here to enter the webinar on Wednesday March 17:

https://globalcampus.uiowa.edu/join_meeting.html?meetingId=1248197025074

- You do NOT need to pre-register to attend these webinars. When you click on the link enter your name and leave the password field blank.
- PLEASE NOTE: Please log in 10 – 20 minutes early – our software has been upgraded and takes a few minutes to download. You can get support at <https://globalcampus.uiowa.edu:443/support.help>. Please make sure your computer has a microphone and speakers to be able to talk and hear in the webinar.
- If you have any questions about participating please contact Kristina Venzke at Kristina-venzke@uiowa.edu

* For information on previous webinars in this series please go to www.savirweb.org

This series is sponsored by SAVIR and co-sponsored by the University of Iowa IPRC, and the University of Iowa Center for Rural International Health.

SAVIR regularly offers free online, live Webinars presenting timely and high-quality injury control research addressing a spectrum of research topics for intentional and unintentional injuries.