Why Should You Tweet? Effective Twitter Usage for Injury & Violence Scholars

June 9, 2020
SAVIR is a professional organization that provides leadership and fosters excellence in the science of preventing and treating injury and violence.
What does SAVIR do?

- A visible identity for injury & violence researchers
- Access to expertise in the development of research, program & policy activities
- Teaching & mentoring the next generation of researchers
- Collaboration with practitioners & policy makers to bridge research, practice & policy efforts
- Advances global injury & violence research
- Advocacy for improved resources for the field
Become a SAVIR Member!

Membership Benefits

• SAVIR Annual Conference
• BMJ journal Injury Prevention on-line access at a discounted rate
• Network with other SAVIR members
• Collaborate on projects, publications, and training
• Advocate for injury and violence research
• Lead or Participate in committees and expert groups
• Mentoring Program supports students and practitioners new to the field

Go to https://www.savirweb.org for more information!
Call for Webinar Proposals

We welcome presentations on any injury topic, special populations, methodological issues, policy dilemmas, etc.

Application Deadline for Spring 2021 Webinars: November 20, 2020

For more information, go to https://savirweb.org/aws/SAVIR/pt/sp/call-for-webinars/

Questions? Please contact Lindsay Sullivan (LindsayMarie.Sullivan@nuigalway.ie) or Ginger Yang (Ginger.Yang@nationwidechildrens.org)
Why Should You Tweet? Effective Twitter Usage for Injury & Violence Scholars

June 9, 2020
Speakers

Sara Brandspigel, MPH
Research Instructor at the Colorado School of Public Health; Director of Outreach for the Program for Injury Prevention, Education and Research

Ann Saba, MPH, BA, Journalism
Communications Specialist for the University of Iowa Injury Prevention Research Center